

SPPCS Catholic Schools' Week 2012

Sunday: Open House and New Construction Tours —12 p.m. beginning in the school gymnasium. Tours will be given from 12—2 p.m. Kindergarten Screening appointments will be taken on this day.

Monday: Alumni Day and Twin Day (can match an outfit with a friend). Alumni speakers will be visiting individual classrooms throughout the morning. Silly Olympics will be held in the afternoon.

Tuesday: All School Mass with Gibault Catholic High School (9 am) and Team Dress Day—Students may wear a shirt or jersey from their favorite sports team. The Faculty and Staff will take on the 8th graders in Volleyball in the afternoon. Priest Appreciation Day—students will be doing activities at school to show Fr. Osang and Fr. Max how much we appreciate their support of our school.

Wednesday: Crazy Dress Day. Students are also being asked to send in Essentials for the Poor (toiletries that will be donated to C.U.P.). Student Trivia Contests will be held throughout the day. Parent Appreciation Day—activities thanking our parents for their support of our Catholic school.

Thursday: Kids' Rummage Sale and PJ Day—Students may wear appropriate pajamas. Students may wear slippers in the building, but must have tennis shoes for outdoors or gym class. Students may bring money to shop at the Rummage Sale. All Rummage Sale Profits will be given to children missions around the world.

Friday: Black Out Dress Day. The Variety Show will be begin at 12:45 p.m. All School BINGO from 10:15-10:45. Student Appreciation Day—treats in the afternoon and surprises for kids all day from the faculty and staff!

Faith. Academics. Service.

Catholic Schools